The image shows a software application window titled "MARKET and STOCK CHART REVIEW". The window contains a grid of green buttons for navigating between different market indices and commodities. The buttons are arranged in three rows. The first row contains "Market Now", "DJIA", "S&P 500", "NASDAQ 100", and "VIX". The second row contains "Crude Oil", "Natural Gas", "Gold", "Silver", and "Exit". The third row contains a left arrow, a central grey box displaying "CVX" with "6 of 503" below it, a right arrow, and a "Show Chart" button. A white circle highlights the "Market Now" button, and a white arrow points from it towards the right side of the window. At the bottom of the window, there is a grey footer area with the text "Charts and Data provided by FINVIZ.com" and "Copyright 2016-17 Groenke Software Engineering".
